Additional Comments

- The reason I have answered 'don't know' for question 8 is because I have never had to raise any concerns or know about any bullying situations.
- The school has helped to develop my child in several ways. She is always eager to come to school.
- Thanks for all your hard work and patience.
- Very good. Keep it up.
- My child's work especially handwriting has improved a lot. Well done.
- I am happy.
- There should be sports clubs or other after school activities at the school.
- I am very happy with my daughter's progress.
- We are very happy with the way our children are treated and respected at this school.
- Things are going for my son.
- The school has no activities for kids.
- The school is nice. I think you should send a child's written progress report to parents each term as some parents can't always come to the parents' evenings.
- We are very pleased and grateful for the work of Christ the King.
- Excellent school. I am very satisfied with the kids learning.
- I would like to see more homework.
- Christ the King is the best school, teachers work hard, some students need to respect teachers more.
- Sometimes homework can be a bit much. Sometimes I struggle to help him – seems like homework for secondary school.
- Booster classes that are currently being done for Year 6 pupils are a great help. Thank you to the teachers for volunteering their time to make sure pupils do well in their Sats.
- I feel this school is good for my child.

Thank you for filling out the questionnaire and for the additional comments above. We will use these to inform our discussions when we revise our policies, practices and approach.
